FATHER WILLIAM'S GENEROSITY

Many new soldiers arrived during the past week and Camp Zachary Taylor is very much overcrowded. There are about 25,000 men now in tents, as the barracks are needed for the drafted men who came in during the past few days. It was rather hard on the new recruits who arrived Friday night, as it was raining hard when they left their train, and K. of C. building No. 3 was not large enough to accommodate them all. Father McAvoy, who has been stationed as a Knight of Columbus chaplain at building No. 2 for the past few weeks, left for his home in Milwaukee on Sunday, and Father Gallagher, who was at the auditorium, had been transferred to Camp Meade. This leaves Camp Taylor without a K. of C. chaplain, but the spiritual work is well handled by Lieut. Barrett and the priests at the chaplains' school, who number 103. The chaplains are very enthusiastic about the Knights of Columbus work at the camp, and give all of their spare time attending to the wants of the soldiers.

One of the prettiest affairs held at Camp Zachary Taylor since its opening was the military wedding of Lieut. John E. Hines and Miss Blanche C. Hild, both of El Paso, Texas, who were married Wednesday night after the usual weekly vaudeville show. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Barrett on the stage of the auditorium and furnished a surprise for the 900 men who packed the building. The bride party consisted of a girl wedding in the auditorium. Chaplain Barrett opened the altar and drew back the heavy drapery so that all present could be witnesses of the affair. The attendants were Miss Jessie Bannon and Major Reed, and the wedding march was played by Miss Mary Cline. No sooner had the audience realized that this was not a stage wedding than an instant hush came over the entire assembly and the solemnity of the ceremony was deeply felt. Not a sound was heard in the vast auditorium until Chaplain Barrett congratulated the bride and groom when the audience immediately broke into a loud and long cheer for the newly married couple. J. Forrest Thompson, Louisville's well known entertainer, came on the stage and the soldiers sang the artillery march song. The candles were extinguished, the draperies were drawn back into place and the vaudeville show continued. The impression made upon the soldiers by the wedding ceremony was heartfelt in many instances, as several of them remarked after the wedding.

The vaudeville show given before and after the wedding was probably the best that has been seen at the camp for a long time. All of the K. C. stars were on the bill, which included Misses Lillian Lillian, Ethel Landevin, Miss Lillian Trudeau, J. Forrest Thompson, Tom Kennedy and Miss Mary Cline. In addition to these entertainers the soldier performers were J. L. Anderson, roller skate expert; Sergt. Hyde, a card wizard of wonderful talent; Corp. Frankie Egbert and Sergt. Al Raucht, who were received with great enthusiasm.

On this same night at building No. 5 the juvenile entertainers from Holy Cross church, under the direction of Mrs. Leslie Thurman, gave a program of eleven numbers which was enjoyed by a packed house. These little entertainers were all very talented and the soldiers applauded them many times. They will be back again at some other of the buildings in the near future, and the K. of C. secretarial staff is hoping they will join the circuit and help entertain the men during the coming winter.

At building No. 2 the colored troops were entertained Thursday night with a minstrel show, the men of the 801st Pioneer Infantry furnishing the talent. Building No. 2 for the colored troops is being used as any building at Camp Taylor, and the men certainly seem to appreciate what the Knights of Columbus are trying to do for their comfort and entertainment. The three colored Secretaries are working very hard and very much interested in their work. Friday night at this building a "buck and wing" dancing contest was held and several exciting bouts indulged in.

Over at building No. 3 the men crowded into witness the minstrel show given by Little Martha Spanginer, Sergt. Cook, Eileen Cline and several others on Friday night. In all there were about sixty-five entertainers who worked at the Knights of Columbus activity centers during the past week. Most of them will be back during the coming week but at different buildings. Too much praise can not be given to these people who come out to entertain the soldiers, as it is a great undertaking for the Knights of Columbus, but the appreciation of the men amply repays any trouble that is undergone in this direction. The spiritual end of the work stands out very prominently, as on last Sunday there were thirty-two masses celebrated at the camp in the Knights of Columbus buildings. Y. M. C. A. tent and the hospital. During the week Secretary P. J. Heffernan was called home on account of the death of his father in New York City, and he has written that he will not be able to come back to work here. Secretary Heffernan had charge of the hospital work of the Knights of Columbus and was one of the most valuable men on the staff. His absence will be keenly felt here, and he has the sympathy of all who have met him in the hour of his bereavement.

A great many Sisters visit the camp during the week and show by their interest that their hearts are with the work that is being carried on for the comfort of the soldiers. All that is necessary is for one of the Secretaries to mention that something is needed at one of the buildings for the altar and within the next day or so it arrives with the compliments of the nuns of some community around Louisville.

The Sisters of St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and the Sacred Heart Home sent enough altar linen for two buildings and the hospital during the past week, which the General Secretary gratefully acknowledges. Jacob Schulz Company and C. B. Thompson donate flowers every week for the decoration of the altars. The Pike-Hickey Company has also been very generous, as have several other firms during the past. The organ donated by Mrs. Florence Veeneman is used every Sunday at the auditorium. Dear old Father William, of St. Mary Magdalen's parish, with his usual generosity, has donated a beautiful gold embroidered cope, benediction veil and a set of altar mass vestments. These vestments are of imported silk with a very heavy gold decoration on them, and they testify to the highness of heart of the rector of St. Mary Magdalen.

On last Friday night a very high class musical was given by Mr. and Mrs. Duchart at the auditorium on the Poplar Level road. These singers are both high class artists and their program was of classic music entirely. This is their first visit to the K. of C. buildings and they will be welcome again at any time. General Secretary Cline, who has been in charge of the K. of C. work, is taking a ten days' vacation. He will visit the Great Lakes training camp and other K. of C. activities during his time off. Secretary McDonnell at the auditorium will be in charge of the local work during Secretary Cline's absence.

RECORDS OF SERVICE.

Mrs. Mary F. McWhorter, of Chicago, National President of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, has inaugurated a unique "questionnaire," which is to be filled out by every Division President in the United States, whereby the order may compile valuable information and render untold service to the Government in the great international crisis. The answers will deal with the number of relatives of the members of the order serving in each arm of the service, the number of graduate nurses and those who are willing to take service, and every phase of war work in the various sections is covered, and the amount of Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps that have been purchased is required. When all of the questionnaires have been returned to the National Headquarters they will be turned over to Miss Adm. K. Gannon, of Davenport, Iowa, the National Chairman of Irish history, to whom has been assigned the pleasing task of writing the history of the war service rendered for God and country by the members of the K. of C. Auxiliary. On the 10th of the republic of the United States of America and in the Dominion of Canada during the great war that will go down in history as the one that "made the world safe for democracy."

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.

Brother Ignatius, of the Xaverian Order of Brothers, has been selected President of St. Joseph's College at Bardstown, succeeding Brother Fidelis, who has been transferred to Baltimore. The new President is a Kentuckian, born at New Haven, and is a gentleman of pleasant personality, scholarly attainments, and has won quite a reputation as an orator. Under his guidance St. Joseph's College should take its old rank as being one of the greatest institutions of learning in this part of the country. For two years Brother Ignatius was President of Old Point Comfort College and for twelve years was President of St. Mary's Academy at Norfolk.

At the request of Rev. Brother Isadore, Provincial of the Xaverian Brothers, Rev. M. R. Donohue, the chaplain of St. Joseph's College, has accepted the position of chaplain in the Junior-Senior division. Brother Donohue left Bardstown this week to take up his new duties at Old Point Comfort College, Fort Monroe.

The flag will consist of twenty-two stars, ten given in the service in this country and twelve in overseas service. The Boy Scout division of Shelbyville will take part and a musical concert will be given by a military band from Camp Zachary Taylor. Rev. STATE FAIR MUSIC.

The sixteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of September 9-14, will boast in Thaviv's Band of forty musicians, one of the greatest musical organizations ever appearing at a State Fair. The Thaviv organization is made up of forty splendidly trained musicians, who are arrayed in military regalia, and accompanying it is a coterie of solo artists of international repute, together with a galaxy of ballet dancers, who are said to be superb. The Thaviv Band is one of the sixteen great organizations which played at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and it was the only one commissioned to play a return engagement. This traveling organization has visited all the principal cities of the United States and has invariably received a contract for a return engagement.

VISITING THEIR PARENTS.

James and Edward Whalen, sons of Mr. and Mrs. David Whalen, West Broadway, who are serving their country in the Marine Corps and now stationed at Paris Island, have been spending a short furlough with their friends and relatives here. James has only recently returned from Santo Domingo, 1029 South Sixth, and both expect to be soon with our forces in France. Mr. and Mrs. Whalen have four sons with the colors, and the number may soon be increased to five. Both boys are pleased with military life and say the Marines are the class of the American forces.

QUITELY WEDDED.

The marriage of Miss Suzanne O'Neill and Joseph Percy Abell, First Lieutenant United States Army, stationed with the 814th Pioneer Infantry at Camp Zachary Taylor, was solemnized quietly Monday afternoon at St. Francis of Rome church, Father White performing the ceremony. Messrs. Marion Abell, of Lebanon, brother of the groom, and Paul O'Neill, brother of the bride, were the only attendants. Lieut. Abell and Mrs. Abell, after a short stay in Chicago, will return to their apartment at Second and Breckinridge.

President Wilson, Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels have acknowledged the offer in letters, saying the offer is one of the most generous made to the Government since the nation entered the war.

KEYSTONERS CAN'T RUN FORD

The Kentucky Irish American last week said that Gov. A. O. Stanley was the logical and popular choice of the Democrats of Kentucky and the events of the past week demonstrated beyond a doubt that this statement was true. Daily front page editorials, news rumors, lobby wirepulling and every manner of gas attack were used to dislodge Gov. Stanley as Democracy's selection, but the result was that he came through it all stronger than ever and will lead the party to victory in November. Percy Haly overtook with his mythical army of 250,000 Democrats and even tried to revive the old liquor gag as an issue, but all to no purpose, and the charge that Gov. Stanley was a weak candidate in 1915 only served to call attention to the attempted betrayal of the Forward Leaguers and fake prohibitionists who took part in the Democratic primary but bolted the nomination. None of the possible points for the short Senatorial term are as strong as Louisville's choice for the honor, and as a clean cut Democrat, a campaigner of ability and asset to the party it is hoped that Gov. Stanley will see his way clear to the possible re-election.

A graduate of Princeton, a former student of President Wilson's, and one wide awake to the issues of today, Kentucky would have an able representative in Mr. Bullitt.

Gov. Stanley will have no trouble in defeating the Democratic Republican nominee, in November by a normal Democratic majority, and Bruner will only receive half-hearted support here in his home town, as rumor credits Seary with being unfriendly to the doctor, and Mayor Seary, who is the Mayor of Louisville, not a slipp. Seary being the Mayor is not going to set in his whole stack on Bruner, with the Federal authorities in addition watching for any political tricks.

Speaking of the Mayor, the daily papers told how our new Mayor, Podunk, consorted with the mob in the underworld, why he let the people of Louisville raise a fund to pay Smith's salary for the balance of the term, allowing us to get a real Mayor, and then make him one of the Keystone police, where he can perform to his heart's delight.

The Bolshevik administration gives out much guff about how well the Board of Works is handling the garbage question and how they secured negro mounds for horse mounds, but never a line about how much Davy's board paid for the houseboat and the suggestion, why not let the people of Louisville raise a fund to pay Smith's salary for the balance of the term, allowing us to get a real Mayor, and then make him one of the Keystone police, where he can perform to his heart's delight.

roll call and promised they would get more money when the rest of the "gol derned" Democrats were gotten rid of.

Chief Petty has been trying to substitute "filver" patrol for the mounted men and Sunday night the Henry Ford got away from two of the Keystoneers at Twenty-third and Magazine, and after a wild dash out Twenty-third street ran up on the pavement and into a yard, smashing everything in a slight street, greatly damaging the "filver."

Keystoneers were badly shaken up, but nothing was given to the papers, contrary to the statement that the Chief made early this year that the public would always be in on the news. The Chief won't be hard on the burlesque policemen, as he must realize it is a little more difficult to steer a Ford than a street car, as the car will stay on the track, and harder than following the furrow behind a plow.

The other day people were mystified to see a mounted police officer in a twenty-foot rope monkeying around automobiles, and the report got out that a crazy man was at large. The spectators say he would first lasso a fire hydrant and then gravely step off several paces, paying no heed to the gapping and wondering crowd. Finally a Keystone policeman came along and assisted in playing the game with him, it leaking out then that the bug in citizen's clothes was a Keystone detective looking for violators of the law pertaining to the location of an auto near a fire hydrant, and his big cable rope was an aid in his brilliant exploits.

KNIGHTS ARE PROUD.

The Knights of Columbus are proud of Fathers John de Valles and Orlan Bouchers. Both have been awarded the Croix de Guerre by France and commissions in the American army. Both were Knights of Columbus chaplains, which means that they were sent over and maintained in France by the organization, like hundreds of others, sent to reinforce the chaplains committed by the War Department, those maintenance is provided for the Government. Both of the priests who have been honored proved themselves physically a well as spiritually militant. Accot'ing to the report received at Knights of Columbus headquarters the two priests found themselves facing emergencies where active fighting helped out the American cause and that they "went to it" with a vim. Father de Valles was comforting and rescuing wounded under fire, and when the Boches made a rush he stopped that long enough to meet them with a volley of hand grenades, which drove them off and permitted the removal of the wounded in his neighborhood. Father Bouchers' ministerial duties also took him to the firing line, and when he saw a machine gun crew hard pressed informally made himself a member of it, and when the gunner was shot manfully took his place and kept pumping bullets in the faces of the oncoming foe.

SACRED HEART ACADEMY.

The curriculum of this school is broadened by courses of lectures given by specialists. These lectures are open to all students of the academy. Special advantages are offered in music—instrumental, voice, harmony and interpretation—with graded courses leading to teachers' certificates and diplomas. Appreciating the value of elocution for the training of our girls to an eloquent and dignified womanhood, every care is taken to have the class of expression up to the highest standard. Painting, oil, water color and china is one of the specialties of the school. The commercial course of the Sacred Heart Academy is included in the third and fourth year academic. The teachers of the academic and commercial courses have made this arrangement an effort to bring to our to-be business women the culture of the academic course. Classes will be resumed September 9, but boarders may now enter any time.

HURT BY AUTO.

Miss Kate Hickey was struck by an automobile driven by Dave Warren on Tuesday evening at Hancock and Market streets, sustaining a sprain of her left shoulder and numerous painful bruises of the body. From serious wounds the machine passed over Miss Hickey's left shoulder. She was given medical attention and then removed to her home at 1246 South Floyd street, where she is resting easy.

JOHN VERNIA DEAD.

John Vernia, an old and respected resident of New Albany, died Tuesday afternoon at St. Joseph's Infirmary. His death was due to kidney trouble, from which he had suffered for a number of years. Mr. Vernia had served two terms in the New Albany City Council. Besides his wife he leaves one son, Charles Vernia, and a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Foley. His funeral was held Friday morning from Holy Trinity church, of which he was a pioneer member and regular communicant.

VISIT LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Mrs. Mary Arthur, of Indianapolis, and Miss Lula Murphy, State President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., will be present here at the meeting of the local branch next Wednesday evening in connection with the organization of a national benefit feature.

GOOD FOR HILL.

Richard Hill, for many years with the Illinois Central railroad at Seventh and the river, was this week placed in the union ticket of office of the United States Railroad administration at Fourth and Mer-

ket. He has a legion of friends and acquaintances who will be pleased to learn of his good luck. Mr. Hill succeeds Thomas Neafus, who was recently drafted into the United States army.

FIRST HIGH MASS.

Last Sunday morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Syracuse two young men, one of them a native of St. Paul's parish, this city, were raised to the priesthood when the Very Rev. Leo Greulich, Minister Provincial of the Minor Order of Conventuals, presented the Rev. Andrew Maas and the Rev. Paschal Murray to the Right Rev. John Grimes, Bishop of Syracuse, for ordination. Father Murray was born, baptized and made his first holy communion and spent his boyhood days in St. Paul's parish. Six years ago he entered St. Francis College and completed his studies at Rensselaer Seminary. Tomorrow morning he will sing his first high mass in St. Paul's, his home church, and will be assisted by the Franciscan fathers from St. Anthony's and St. Peter's churches. Father Murray is well remembered and will be doubtless greeted by a large congregation, who will receive his blessing.

JUBILEE OF BROTHER.

Rev. Brother Camillus, of St. Xavier's College, last Sunday had a happy silver jubilee celebration of his entrance into the great teaching order, and also was the recipient of many congratulations. Born in Kentucky, Brother Camillus entered the Xaverian Brotherhood at the age of twenty, and made his novitiate and scholasticate at Mt. St. Joseph's College, Baltimore, the mother house of the American province. After completing his scholastic he was sent to England, where he taught in various Xaverian schools for nearly fifteen years. Returning to this country he taught at Portsmouth and Wheeling, and for the past five years has been stationed at St. John's school, this city. The jubilee celebration began on Sunday morning with a high mass. Rev. Father Victor, chaplain of St. Xavier's, was the celebrant of the mass. The army chaplains, Rev. Father McGuire, of Canton, Mass., and Father Byrnes, of Altoona, who are attending the chaplains' training school at Camp Taylor, were present. After the religious celebration a banquet was served at the college at noon.

MEETING OF GRADUATES.

A meeting has been called at St. Xavier's College for this evening and tomorrow at 7 o'clock to discuss the new army regulations in regard to students. Up to this time only college graduates have had the preference of becoming officers, but now this privilege is extended to all high school graduates over eighteen years of age. Graduates of all recognized high schools are admitted into this Students' Army Training Corps. The meeting is to enable St. Xavier's graduates to make proper selection of schools and young men should realize the splendid offer made by the Government. They will receive board, tuition and education free, besides regular army uniform and the pay of a private—$30 per month. High school graduates who do not avail themselves of this opportunity will be required to enlist as privates in the army. It is well for them to register in some recognized college before September 12.

NIGHT OF EAST GRAND KNIGHT.

J. William Klapheke, Past Grand Knight of the local Knights of Columbus, will deliver a talk on the Great Liberty convention of the Knights of Columbus to the members next Wednesday evening and an interesting talk is assured, as Mr. Klapheke is a straight-from-the-shoulder orator.

ENROLLMENT INCREASED.

St. Xavier's College began its fifty-second scholastic term Tuesday with an unexpected increase over last year and the largest enrollment in its history. Because of the war and the new draft regulations the faculty looked for some decrease, but the enrollment of 178 new students was a most agreeable surprise. Brother Benjamin, now President of St. Xavier's, a most successful year is now assured.

HULSKAMP—MALIKUS.

A wedding of interest the coming week will be that of Albert B. Hulskamp, the popular Limerick dramatist, and Miss Mildred Marie Malikus, which will be solemnized at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening at St. Louis Bertrand's church. The drug store will close at 4 o'clock on that day, and a cordial invitation is extended the friends of the worthy couple to attend their wedding.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

On Thursday evening, September 12, will be held the next meeting of the Catholic Federation of Louisville and Jefferson counties. The meeting will be held as usual in the Inter-Southern building, Fifth and Jefferson, and President E. J. Cooney hopes for an even better representation than shown through the summer.

NARROW ESCAPE.

J. P. Dant, Jr., was severely burned about the forehead and hand Tuesday morning and narrowly escaped serious injury. He was working on an automobile in the rear of his father's store at Ninth and Broadway when a spark ignited the gasoline. The machine was damaged about $100. While the burns were painful it is not thought they will leave any mark.

WOULD DECEIVE AMERICAN PRESS

The America of New York in a recent issue contains an article by I. E. Walsh entitled "More Midsummer Pope Baiting." The author contends that the agitation carried on against the Holy Father is not only continuous, but is conducted in a careful manner, innuendo and veiled insinuations usually taking the place of open attacks. Since this article appeared additional evidence of the author's contention has been offered in an article sent by an unnamed "correspondent in Spain" via Havana to the New York Herald Company, and copyrighted by that organization. Papers receiving the service of that agency have copied the article, and one of them, the Globe Democrat of St. Louis, has printed it under these headlines: "Crafty Huns Beguile Spanish Catholics in Effort to Deceive U. S."—Insidious Propaganda Work Done Among Dons, Who Are Now Awakening to Insincerity of Germans." The keynote of the article is struck in the introductory sentences, lest the knowing reader might miss it, one of the first paragraphs reads: "As the most important of the Catholic countries not yet aligned with either of the world belligerents, (Spain) has become a focal point for the concentration of those insidious peace offensive craftily inaugurated in Germany, which the obtainable sanction of the Vatican, looking to an ending of hostilities by agreement or compromise before Germany and Austria can be crushed into humility by their foes."

No proof is advanced that the Vatican has "intentionally concocted" such peace propaganda, and the fact that the correspondent is not named does not permit the reader to place the responsibility for the statement with any one. The statement is a bold assertion, pure and simple, and at that one designed to cast aspersions on the Pope, who is represented as favoring the hated Central Powers, if only to the extent of endeavoring to secure for them an acceptable peace, thus preventing their being "crushed into humility by their foes."

There can be no doubt that this article, as well as the instances referred to by America's contributor, is a product of that propaganda which has been conducted for years for the purpose of discrediting the Papacy with the nations of the earth. It is a known fact that agents of secret societies in the Latin countries of Europe strain every effort to combat the church and stop at no means which appear suitable to further their ends. And those who know the tactics pursued by these enemies of the church will readily realize that the contribution of this entire article to the American agency is but another attempt to launch a poisoned arrow, through the press, into the minds of Americans, to convey to them the impression that the Pope is hostile to the war aims of our country.

The author certainly should have advanced proof of his contention that Pope Benedict has "sanctioned" the peace propaganda of the Germans. But he merely tells us that the "Catholic Press Association" of Germany has thanked the Spanish Catholic press for the united action in favor of the establishment of harmony between the Christian nations, based on the principles fixed by the Pope. Who can say that the Pope is unfair to any nation by advocating such a policy? Are not our boys fighting for this same aim, for an establishment of a world peace, on a just basis? Where then lies the offense of the Pope? The launching of the campaign of vilification against the Holy Father in American papers need not astound us. European papers have been clamoring for the distribution of these slanderous aspersions for years. It behooves us to be on our guard and to watch lest some in our own ranks be led astray by skillfully veiled insinuations.

SERVICE FLAG RAISING.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock there will be a patriotic celebration and immense gathering at St. Paul's church, Jackson street, of which Rev. Eugene Donohue is the pastor. The feature will be the blessing and raising of a beautiful service flag, with ninety-five stars, representing the boys of the congregation who have gone to the front for their country. The children of the parish, with the mothers, sisters and fathers of the boys under the colors, will march around the church grounds singing patriotic songs. Rev. James F. Cummins, of Cleveland, Ohio, one of the priests from the chaplains' training school, will make the principal address, and prayers for the boys and benediction will close the service.

GERMANY AND VATICAN.

Owing to the reluctance of the Pope, as the spiritual father of multitudes in all the warring lands, to declare himself specially on one side or the other in the war, curancy has been given the report that his sentiments are impartial and even that his favor inclined toward the Germans. This impression is corrected in a vigorous article in which he is put down as consistently pro-Ally, from the pen of Msgr. Cyril Sigourney N. Fay, now in Washington, and recently returned from Rome. Msgr. Fay shows that autocracy has always been the enemy of the church and so continues in the person of the Kaiser, and then adds:

The Pope has had one salient chance to show on which side his sympathy lay. That was when Jerusalem was captured by the British. At the very moment when, by his special order, the church bells were ringing with joy that Jerusalem had passed into Christian hands the Pope was being maligned and scorned for wishing to prevent the Holy City from remaining in Christian hands. It has been proved that the Catholic church can exist better, with more health and more vigor, in a free atmosphere than in an atmosphere of despotism. In despotism Byzantium it disappeared; in despotism Russia it was driven out; in the England of the Tudors it was beaten to earth; in France of Louis XIV. it was bound hand and foot. These are all incontrovertible reasons why the Pope should not desire to give over the world to an autocrat who does not even profess the Catholic religion, but on the other hand professes to be the religious follower of the deadliest enemy the Catholic church has ever had. We have forgotten our religious disputes in the crisis of this war, and for this many thanks. We are all trying to act together for the safety of this country and for a decisive and glorious victory for our cause. And are they then the friends of his country who are the friends of the Pope who are the friends of the Catholic religion and try to throw the apple of discord among those who should stand shoulder to shoulder against the common enemy?

INVADE INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS.

The opponents and supporters of the national war-time prohibition measure have come to an agreement fixing July 1, 1919, instead of January 1, as the day on which the bill shall go into effect. Now that the nation is at war, many restrictions on the freedom of individuals which in time of peace would be intolerable are necessary and lawful. But fanatical upholders of various kinds are taking advantage of war-time conditions to make unjustifiable invasions of private and individual rights. Nation-wide prohibition as understood and advocated by certain extremists among its promoters is unquestionably an invasion of individual rights. These fanatical upholders will leave nothing undone to accomplish their designs, but it is to be hoped that our legislators will not be carried away by the enthusiastic efforts of such supporters.

NEXT LIBERTY LOAN.

The campaign for the fourth Liberty Loan begins September 28 and closes October 19. Here the American people have a great inspiration for a great effort. The news from the battle front inspires every American heart, not only with pride and patriotism but with a great incentive to do his or her part. There is no shirking, no shifting of the individual burden, no selfishness by American soldiers in France; there should be no hero. We are both supporting the same country and the same cause—our army in one way, ourselves in another. Theirs is the harder part, but at least we can do our part as promptly and loyally and efficiently as they do theirs.

PRAY FOR THEM.

Don't forget to remember your soldier boys in your daily prayer. They are exposed to countless dangers of the body and the soul and they need every help that can come to them from above in the hour of their direst need. As the days and the weeks and the months pass by this hour of need is rapidly approaching more and more of them.

GERMANS ON RETREAT.

The best indication of the magnitude of the Allies' victory the past few weeks is the statement of Gen. March that the number of prisoners taken since July 1 has passed the 112,000 mark. In the same time the Allies have taken from the Germans 1,300 cannon of the field-gun caliber and larger. This is encouraging news. The territory won back thus far is not as great as the Germans gained in their three great offensives earlier in the year. But the retreat still continues and there is little likelihood of it stopping short of the old Hindenburg line. The German offensive has been turned into a disastrous defensive.

PRAISES CATHOLIC EDITORS.

Championing the cause of the apostolate of the press, Right Rev. Christopher E. Byrne, Bishop-elect of Galveston, in a notable sermon in Chicago said:

Our Catholic papers are an absolute necessity for us all. The Catholic today who is indifferent to the Catholic press, or who holds himself superior to it and its usefulness, walks in dangerous ways and has no full appreciation of the great blessing of faith which Almighty God has bestowed upon him. The Catholic press must be encouraged, strengthened and supported. And so the Catholic editor has a great work; he can wield a great influence. With him must stand the people, sustaining him in his work in their defense, their salvation.

LABOR'S OPPORTUNITY.

The war has given recognition and prominence to union labor and the workmen should make the most of this opportunity by putting forth their best men as leaders and discarding the agitators who are at the front for political and personal profit.

Thus far the Ancient Order has contributed $8,500 for mass outfits for our army chaplains.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services were held over the remains of James E. Goetz on Sunday afternoon at St. Louis Bertrand's church. He was forty-one years old and resided at 627 Floral Terrace. A wide circle of relatives and friends mourn his death.

Joseph P. McNamara, aged forty-five, well known in the West, died Tuesday morning at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Mary Flaherty, 2411 Duncan street. His funeral took place Thursday morning with requiem high mass at St. Cecilia's church, and was attended by many friends and acquaintances.

Edward J. Becker, beloved son of Mary Becker and the late Henry J. Becker and brother of Mrs. John Textor, 1038 South Fifteenth street, answered Death's call Saturday evening, leaving many who mourn his death. His funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Peter's church.

Tuesday morning the last solemn rites over the remains of Cecilia Clephas, the eight-year-old daughter of Anthony and Agnes Clephas, 932 South Shelby street, were held at St. John's church. Rev. Father Schumann celebrating the mass. To the bereaved parents many friends extend their sympathy.

Monday morning with requiem high mass the funeral of Mrs. Agnes Regina Finnegan was held from St. Philip Neri church, of which she had long been a regular communicant. Mrs. Finnegan resided at 1374 South Floyd street, and was held in great respect by her friends and neighbors. She was the widow of the late M. J. Finnegan and was fifty-one years old.

Death claimed two members of St. Charles parish last Sunday—Mrs. Louis Lebre, of 3100 Dumesnil street, and Frank O. Smith, of 2207 West Kentucky street. Mrs. Lebre was a native of France and leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Ceeley and Mrs. W. J. Lee. Mr. Smith was an inspector and had a long acquaintance. Their two funeral services and requiem mass were held Tuesday morning at St. Charles church.

Saturday evening Miss Katie Sullivan, aged fifty-two, succumbed to a lingering illness at St. Joseph's infirmary. She was the daughter of the late Thomas and Honora Sullivan, and is survived by one sister, Miss Annie Sullivan, of West Baden, and William Sullivan, a former Superintendent of the Workhouse. Her funeral was held Monday morning from St. Michael's church, Rev. Martin O'Connor saying the requiem mass.

Typhoid pneumonia Sunday night proved victor over Charles Meehan, 1177 East Broadway, spreading gloom among his many friends in both social and business circles. Mr. Meehan was thirty-three years old and since boyhood had been with the Helck Hardware Company. Surviving him are three brothers, James, Frank and William T. Meehan, Superintendent of St. Louis cemetery, and four sisters, Miss A. Meehan, of the Nicholas Finzer school; Mrs. R. N. Hart, Mrs. Catherine Dear, Miss Sallie Meehan and Miss Edna Meehan, the latter of Ocean Park, Cal., where James Meehan also resides. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at St. Brigid's church, where the large attendance evidenced the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

CONTRACTOR FOR

ALL KINDS OF CONCRETE WORK

Don't Change Jobs Without Consulting Uncle Sam

THE Government asks the cooperation of all workers to do away with the unnecessary "turn-over" of labor. Since our entry into the war there has been a serious shifting of labor, which has greatly crippled essential war industries. If there can be an intelligent distribution of workmen to these industries there will be less difficulty in winning the war.

Therefore, to assist both workmen and employers, the Government has organized the U. S. Employment Service as a part of the Department of Labor. Its national office is in Washington, and it has 500 branch offices and 20,000 U. S. Public Service Reserve Enrollment Agents throughout the country. It knows labor conditions everywhere, and if given opportunity can direct the man seeking employment to just the job that needs him most.

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

"Industry plays as essential and honorable a role in this great struggle as do our military armaments. We all recognize the truth of this, but we must also see its necessary implications—namely, that industry, doing a vital task for the nation, must receive the support and assistance of the nation."

"Therefore, I solemnly urge all employers engaged in war work to refrain after August 1st, 1918, from recruiting unskilled labor in any manner except through this central agency [U. S. Employment Service]. I urge labor to respond as loyally as heretofore to any calls issued by this agency for voluntary enlistment in essential industry. And I ask them both alike to remember that no sacrifice will have been in vain, if we are able to prove beyond all question that the highest and best form of efficiency is the spontaneous co-operation of a free people."

WOODROW WILSON.

Thus workmen benefit through having a far-reaching and thoroughly reliable placing organization, where they are assured of being sent to sure jobs—where they can do the best work to help win the war.

And the Government is enabled to fill the ranks with workers in such a way that all essential industries can be kept going full speed. This is vitally necessary to the success of our army in France.

If you are at present employed in useful work, do not change your job without consulting a branch office or enrollment agent of this service. Let your Government assist you in determining the work in which you will be most valuable in helping to win the war. Your use of the U. S. Employment Service is a patriotic duty to your country. It is your guarantee of fair and square treatment, and the opportunity to serve where you are best fitted.

Learn the Facts In the Gas Situation.

I am trying to give the Company's side of the gas controversy in signed statements in the daily newspapers.

Every man and woman in the city should be interested in this record of a service organization which has made every effort to be a useful public servant.

This Company has saved the people of Louisville millions of dollars in the past four and one-third years. Every big undertaking which it has accomplished has produced benefits of substantial value to the great majority of citizens.

This Company is striving to live up to the express terms of the franchise by securing permission to supplement the natural gas supply with manufactured gas next winter, in case of need. In the face of a national shortage, the situation is very serious.

To avoid widespread suffering and hardship next winter we want your help and co-operation.

Please read my statements in the daily newspapers.
